ACADEMIC CALENDAR 2011-2012

Detailed Calendar for the months from Nov. 2011 to May 2012.

S. No.	Prog. No.	Programme Date	Programme Name	Objective	Target Group	Nominations
1	P 439	Nov. 4-14, 2011	National Orientation Programme for Civil Judges (Junior Division)	About 87% of India's litigation is pending before subordinate courts. The bulk of these cases are pending before judges of the junior division. These courts are the first point of contact for common people in our country in their quest for justice on day to day matters. They face many daunting challenges including delay and arrears and poor infrastructure. This programme seeks to develop in newly appointed junior division judges a common vision about the main challenges facing front line trial courts in India; and steps that may be considered by judges presiding over such courts to strengthen judging process. The programme will facilitate their sharing of knowledge and experience across the country – with each other and with resource persons drawn from amongst High Court judges (and, subject to their availability, Supreme Court judges). The programme will focus mainly on the key national challenges facing the judicial system, the role of trial court judges, the evolution and modernization of judiciary in response to the needs of a changing society.	Civil Judges (Jr. Division) within two years of completion of SJA Training (where Judges of this category are not available the junior most Civil Judges may be nominated.)	6 nominations each from High Courts of Allahabad, Bombay, M.P. & Patna 3 nominations each from High Courts of A.P., Gauhati, Gujarat, Karnataka, Madras, P & H. & Rajasthan. 2 nominations each from High Courts of Calcutta, Delhi, Jharkhand, Kerala & Orissa 1 nomination each from other High Courts.
2	P 440	Nov. 5-6, 2011	National Conference of High Court Justices on Law and Social Change	Law is perceived as an instrument of social change. In S.P. Guptas' case the Supreme Court has held that Court is an arm of social revolution. The main purpose of this National Conference of High Court Justices on Law and Social Change is to provide an opportunity for the High Court Justices from across the country to share their experience and discuss various dimensions of interplay between law and social change, especially in the context of liberalized society and globalization of economy.	Hon'ble Judges of the High Court	Number as determined by the Chief Justice

3	P 441	Nov. 12-14, 2011	National Conference of Senior District Judges on Court Management for Enhancing Quality, Responsiveness and Timeliness of Justice	This Conference provides for Senior District Judges (and their equivalents) a unique opportunity to discuss common issues and share knowledge across the country on key challenges facing the judicial system. The theme of these Conferences is Court Management for Enhancing Quality, Responsiveness and Timeliness of Justice. Effective court management as well as case load and case management are central to achieving the goal of timely and responsive justice. The participants are expected to share experiences across the country on effective approaches used by Indian judges for court management, case load management and case management. The Conference will try to identify specific initiatives that may be considered by Senior District Judges for effective court and case management.	Senior District Judges/equivalents with atleast ten years service remaining in the judiciary	2 nominations each from High Courts of Allahabad, A.P., Bombay, Gujarat, Gauhati, M.P., Madras, Patna & Rajasthan. 1 nomination each from other High Courts
4	P 442 to P 451	Nov. 18-20, 2011	National Court Excellence Enhancement Programme (CEEP 1 - 10)	This is a new line of programmes being introduced this year on pilot basis. The main purpose of CEEP programmes is to develop a comprehensive framework for enhancing the excellence of courts that involves all stakeholders of a court - bench, bar, ministerial staff, prosecutors, civil society and police. In these programmes we will analyze in detail about 100 selected courts across the country that face high levels of delay, arrears, quality and access challenges. The main aim of the CEEP programme is to develop an agenda of action required to enhance the excellence of the Court. CEEP will also enable NJA to identify common national challenges in enhancing court excellence across the country.	Separate letter and note sheet will follow. 5	P 452	Nov. 25-27, 2011	Regional Judicial Conference on Protection of Human Rights (West Zone: Maharashtra, Rajasthan, Gujarat and Madhya Pradesh)	Enactment of the Protection of Human Rights Act added a new chapter in the history of Indian legal system. This Act envisages a new role for subordinate courts in protecting human rights (defined expansively in the Act). While some states have notified subordinate courts as human rights courts; others are yet to do so. However, in general, the understanding about active role envisaged for subordinate courts in the Act is yet to emerge.	Subordinate court judges. (West Zone: Gujarat, Maharashtra, Madhya Pradesh and Rajasthan)	Information regarding venue and nominations will follow.

				In this background NJA will organize Regional Conference to discuss and develop effective role for subordinate courts as Human Right Courts. The objective of regional programme this year is to enhance excellence of subordinate courts for effective protection of human rights. The programme will provide a platform for judges of sub-ordinate courts to share experiences and knowledge with each other and with resource persons drawn from amongst Hon'ble Supreme Court and High Court Judges (subject to their availability). This programme will also provide an opportunity to judges to discuss the main challenges confronted by subordinate courts in implementing legal regime of human rights.
