14. Should be more practice oriented.
15. Yes

List subject area of concern, which NJA must address through other programmes relating to technology related aspect being dealt by the Courts

1. Yes
2. May hold a programme on Election Laws. For every high court, even the bench of every high court, one judge is designated as judge for “Election Petitions”.
3. The Academy must organize programme addressing election disputes and cfn expeditious disposal.
4. Programme can be of two and half days or two days. If possible, Sunday morning the judges leave Bhopal, it would become convenient for next working day.
5. Constitutional Law
6. Environmental Protection and issues involved.
7. Respondent did not comment.
8. Prevention of corruption course should be increased.
9. Highly satisfied. Programme content and technology very good.

13. Respondent did not comment
14. As given in (1) above.
15. Respondent did not comment.
Any other suggestion/Remark:

1. No
2. Making it more interactive.
3. House Keeping requires improvement.
4. As above. Above comments are in Programme P 948 (8-11 Oct 2015) principle persons working in professional firms who are advisors to various litigating parities.
5. The programme can be reduced to three days and the time of each day can be extended beyond 3.30 pm.
6. Advocates and personnel from private establishments who are called as resource personnel should not be permitted to assess the views of sitting judges.
7. Better if first day’s programme is started at 10 am, since participants coming from South have no direct flight. Convenient mode is train, which reached Bhopal at 8-8.30 am.
8. NJA is performing outstanding work.
9. Improve room and stay condition.
10. May be for three days.
